

Memorandum of Understanding

Between the Thai Journalists Association and Club of Cambodian Journalists

Whereas the Club of Cambodian Journalists has led its Cambodian journalists to visit Thailand following the invitation of its Thai counterpart, the Thai Journalists Association between September 16 and 20; and

Whereas the Thai Journalists Association and the Club of Cambodian Journalists have agreed to develop collaboration that promotes media relations of the two countries. The Thai Journalists Association and the Club of Cambodian Journalists have agreed to enter into a Memorandum of Understanding.

Details are as follows;

1. The Thai Journalists Association and the Club of Cambodian Journalists agree to closely work together to help promote media relations of the two countries.
2. The Thai Journalists Association and the Club of Cambodian Journalists agree to do their best to promote constructive coverage of their news media in their respective countries in order for the people of the two countries to have better understanding in terms of social, economical, political and cultural matters.
3. The Thai Journalists Association and the Club of Cambodian Journalists agree to strengthen media relations of the two countries through regional and international activities.
4. The Thai Journalists Association and the Club of Cambodian Journalists agree to carry out the Thai-Cambodian Media Exchange Programme every year in order to give chance to journalists of the two countries to exchange their ideas, opinions and experiences on current media situation in their own countries.

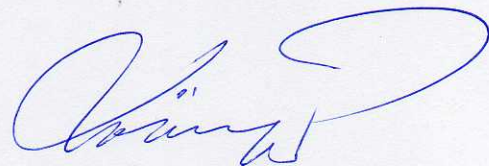

5. The Thai Journalists Association and the Club of Cambodian Journalists agree to exchange information regarding media situation of each country every year by jointly conducting workshop or discussion on the media issues and other sectors for the benefit of the two people.
6. The Thai Journalists Association and Club of Cambodian Journalists agree to help each other to train the Cambodian and Thai journalists to improve their professionalism.
7. The Memorandum of Understanding will take effect shortly after we, the undersigned, have read and agreed with it. Further, we have reviewed the proposed project and approved it.

Bangkok, Thailand

September 19, 2011

Chavarong Limpattamapanee
President
the Thai Journalists Association

Pen Samitthy
President
the Club of Cambodian Journalists